

Global Social Mobility

26th Annual SDSU Sociology Graduate Student Committee Symposium

Date: Friday, April 21st

Time: 12:00 - 2:00pm

Room: SHW 011

Join us for a panel discussion on inequality and why social mobility matters in global context, as well as how to address injustices that prevent social mobility.

With Special Guest Speakers:

Dr. Anna C Smedley-Lopez
UNLV

Research and teaching interests in the area of social justice, ranging from activism to strategies for creating inclusive classrooms and community engagement, with a focus on racial justice.

Dr. Hung Cam Thai
Pomona College
Specialties in transnational families, globalization, Southeast Asian Americans, urban life, and monetary flows.

Dr. Rhacel Salazar Parrenas
USC

Her areas of research include labor, migration, transnational feminism, economic sociology, gender and the family.

Dr. Roberto Hernandez
SDSU
Comparative border studies, decolonial theory, social movements, cultural production, violence, urban studies, relational race/ethnicity studies.