

S4TJ @ SWS Winter Meeting

SWS Meeting Theme: Sexualities and Migrations in the Context of Global Justice
New Orleans, LA

Pre-conference schedule, Thursday January 12, 2023

8:00 - 8:45 am	Morning social with light refreshments
9:00 - 10:15 am	Incorporating the S4TJ trans justice bibliography in your classroom	Wynn Strange
10:30 am - 12:00 pm	Making transparent the process of writing	Hayden Fulton and Erika Slaymaker
12:00 - 1:00 pm	Lunch break
1:00 - 2:30 pm	Making transparent qualitative method processes	Wynn Strange
2:45 - 4:00 pm	Strategies for staying motivated, self-care, and persisting in the academy	Hayden Fulton, Penny Harvey, and Erika Slaymaker

S4TJ Sponsored Panel at SWS

Friday the 13th 1:30-3:00pm in Gallier AB, 4th Floor

Trans Experiences with Migration: The Impact of Global Movement, Globalization, and Travel on the Embodied and Political Lives of Trans People.

Penny Harvey, Piper Sledge, and Wynn Strange

Membership and registration for the SWS Winter Meeting is requested for attendees. Information, including cost reduction options for students, can be found here: <https://socwomen.org/2023-winter-meeting/>

New(ish) SWS attendees or those looking to make a conference buddy early on, reach out to Wynn! They will meet with you and connect you with others in the same situation. wstrange@pdx.edu

Sociologists for Trans Justice (S4TJ)

<https://s4tj.com/>

<https://www.facebook.com/groups/s4tjwriting>